The Voice Off-Screen: An Evening with Wilson Yip

One of today's leading Hong Kong directors, Wilson Yip (left) has been in the industry for over 20 years despite his young age, turning in a wide range of works to critical acclaim. He talked about his creative journey with critic Thomas Shin at the seminar on 18 August 2006.

A Tribute to Lan Chi Pak

Lauded as the ‘King of Wusheng’, Lan Chi Pak is beyond doubts one of Cantonese opera’s most celebrated stars. To accompany our film programme specially dedicated to Lan, (from left) scholar Lai Kin, Lan’s protégé Liu Kwok-sum and host Tong Ka-wai talked about the tumultuous career of this Cantonese opera great at the seminar on 30 September 2006.
